

ROCHE WINES

Tradition Pinot Noir 2018

Naramata Bench, Okanagan Valley, BC

TASTING NOTES

A classic - Jancis Robinson called the 2017 vintage of this wine "spring and autumn in one glass." Very balanced, showing red currant aromas, cedar from French oak, with dried cherries and autumn leaves from time in barrel. Aged and ready to drink.

FOOD PAIRING

Beef Bourguignon, of course. Wild game, fiddlehead ferns and morel mushrooms. Pasta with brown butter and sage. Date night with your partner.

With a deep love for our French culture, we are embracing raising our vigneron family on the Naramata Bench. The organically-grown vines are our children's playground; the simple winery is our home. We make wine in the méthode française to honour our roots and mentors. Each vintage is a gift to our guests, inviting you to join us in celebrating the every day joys of life. C'est l'art de vivre.
